

Cameron's Portfolio of Works

This site is a portfolio of the works of Cameron Hall in the professional world, including roles, credits, positions, and anything else pertinent to the professional or semi-professional fields.

This website is home to everything about Cameron Hall. This includes educational experience, film credits, leadership positions, pertinent job history, etc. It is also a place that showcases the films created by Cameron, updated through time with each new production. With this, the website will give personal insight to Cameron and his personal life, including passions, plans for the future, and more.

Personas

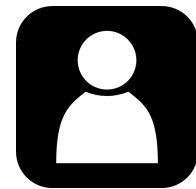

Job Interviewer

An individual who is evaluating the subject of the site in terms of a potential job opportunity or leadership position.

Cameron Hall

This site will act as a reference for Cameron (myself) to past activities, past credits, and a form of tracking accomplishment.

Student Film Enthusiast

As a student filmmaker, Cameron has been part of or produced a handful of short films. A student film enthusiast might use this to see the works that Cameron has been a part of.

Comps

